GREYHOUND AND TRAILWAYS: Operate buses between many New Jersey communities and much of the nation, especially the East. See your White Pages for local numbers.

How to Use the Public Transportation Map

The map at the right shows scheduled intercity bus and passenger rail routes in New Jersey. It also shows communities having local public transportation.

Service frequency will vary by route, community and transportation mode. For example, some buses and trains may bypass intermediate stops. Also, some services may not operate evenings, weekends or holidays.

For detailed schedule and fare information, contact transportation companies or appropriate local government agencies. Listed at the left and right are the names and telephone numbers of many of them.

Taxicabs and other companies also provide transportation in many areas. For a complete listing of public transportation services in your area, consult your local telephone book.

Over 62 or Handicapped? Check Out These Reduced Fares And Special Services!

Being handicapped or a senior citizen often means your mobility is limited. That's why we've begun several special transportation programs for you - including a reduced fare plan!

During offpeak hours, senior citizens and handicapped persons enrolled in our special program can travel half fare aboard New Jersey buses and trains. Offpeak hours are from 9:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m. and from 7:00 p.m.-6:00 a.m. on weekdays and all day Saturday, Sunday and state holidays.

If you are 62 or older, you can apply for the reduced fare program at any New Jersey bank or savings and loan company office. You can also apply at your local County Office on Aging. When you apply, bring with you your Social Security card and proof of age, such as a birth certificate,driver's license or any legal document.

Handicapped persons should write for a special application. Write to: Special Programs, New Jersey Department of Transportation, P.O. Box 101, 1035 Parkway Avenue, Trenton, New Jersey 08625. You can also call us at 609-292-3450 for more information.

Many communities also provide special transportation for residents who cannot ride regular buses and trains because of disabilities. To find out about these services in your area, contact local agencies or organizations serving senior citizens and handicapped individuals.

Additionally, many New Jersey buses have a special kneeling feature. This lowers the bus ... to make it easier for you to get on and off. Also, some train and bus stations have special facilities for handicapped travelers. For more information, contact local agencies or bus and train companies.

Go Easy On Yourself With Public Transit

New Jersey has one of the country's biggest public transportation networks...daily, thousands of buses and passenger trains serve hundreds of routes and places!

As a result, scores of New Jerseyans ride transit. They already know it's far more economical than driving, more relaxing, frequently faster—and a sure way to beat the gasoline crunch.

If you're ready to try transit, check our transit map. It shows many of the places you can reach by bus or train.

Service frequency and availability will vary by route, times and places. So before you travel, get complete route, schedule and fare information from your local transit carrier. For your convenience, many sources of transit information are listed in this guide. Taxicabs and other services provide an attractive public transportation alternative in many areas. See your local Yellow Pages under "Taxicabs" and "Bus Lines" for their telephone numbers.

Please note: Special care has been taken to make this guide complete and accurate, but information comes from many sources so we cannot be responsible for omissions or changes. Always check with your local carrier for latest information. Any omissions, changes or errors brought to our attention will be sincerely appreciated.

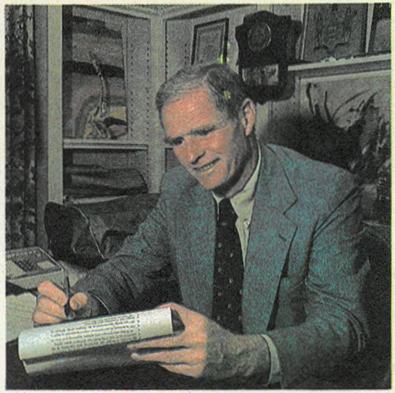
New Jersey's transportation system is one of the major reasons that the Garden State is an attractive place to live, work or vacation. Throughout its history, New Jersey has pioneered in transportation innovations which, in turn, encouraged economic, cultural and social growth and development. Today, our roads and highways, buses and trains provide convenient travel to points throughout the State. Whatever your destination, I hope you will use this Transportation Map and have a safe and pleasant trip.



Sincerely,

Brendan Byrne GOVERNOR

New Jersey has one of the most extensive road and highway networks in the country, the third largest commuter rail system and a large number of bus carriers to serve the travel needs of residents and visitors. The system is outlined in this Transportation Map, which includes for the first time, detailed information about mass transit services as well as road and highway routes. In keeping with our national and State goal of conserving energy, I hope you will try to use mass transit whenever possible. Have a safe and pleasant trip!

Sincerely,

Louis J. Gambaccini
Commissioner of Transportation

How to Use the Public Transportation Map

The map at the right shows scheduled intercity bus and passenger rail routes in New Jersey. It also shows communities having local public transportation.

Service frequency will vary by route, community and transportation mode. For example, some buses and trains may bypass intermediate stops. Also, some services may not operate evenings, weekends or holidays.

For detailed schedule and fare information, contact transportation companies or appropriate local government agencies. Listed at the left and right are the names and telephone numbers of many of them.

Taxicabs and other companies also provide transportation in many areas. For a complete listing of public transportation services in your area, consult your local telephone book.

New Jersey has one of the most extensive road and highway networks in the country, like the rest of the nation. Unfortunately, the number of bus carriers to serve the transit needs of residents and visitors. The system is outlined in this Transportation Map, which includes not only the state's highways but also about mass transit services as well as road and highway routes. In addition, we've listed local and State goal of conserving energy. I hope you'll make more use of public transit whenever possible. Have a safe and pleasant trip!

Sincerely,
Brendan Byrne, GOVERNOR

New Jersey's transportation system is one of the major reasons that the Garden State is a great place to live, work and vacation. Throughout its history New Jersey has pioneered in transportation innovations which in turn encouraged growth and development. Today our roads and highways, buses and trains provide convenient travel to points throughout the State. Whatever your destination, we hope you will use this Transportation Map and have a safe and pleasant trip.

Sincerely,
Louis J. Gambaccini, Executive Director, New Jersey Transit Corporation
